

AOP Health is the European pioneer for integrated therapies for rare diseases and in critical care. To enhance our team in Vienna we are looking for a:

Junior Controller (f/m/d)

Professional Skills

- Degree in finance, economics, business administration with first working experience
- Strong analytical skills and able to work in a complex environment
- Detail oriented and structured mindset
- Strong organizational, critical thinking and problem-solving skills
- Comprehensive knowledge of Office 365 and advanced Excel skills
- Fluent in English and German, other languages are an asset

Ready for an ambitious job?

- You provide accurate and timely monthly/ quarterly closing reports
- You prepare ad-hoc analysis, presentations and reporting as a basis for management decisions

Like to take accountability?

- You review forecasts produced by the business functions and challenge key assumptions
- You maintain and enhance our controlling software and business analytics tools
- You identify optimization and BI digitalization potential for continuous improving of our business processes

Able to align?

- You support the budget planning process in a global acting company with a matrix organization
- You work closely with non-financial business partners and provide financial information and potential solutions

Looking for an agile environment?

- You enjoy working in a growing international company
- You are happy to drive agile projects in our fast-developing company environment
- You have can-do mentality and seek innovative ways to solve complex tasks

The gross monthly salary provided for this function is a minimum of € 2.000.- based on full-time employment. Any potential overpayment depends on professional experience and qualifications.

Take this AOPPORTUNITY and apply now.

 contact*

Eliska Drabek

-664-88963746